Customer Reviews

I actually bought on EBAY - a little better price. If you are a PAGE/ZEP fan, buy it. It's great and so far it is spot on, within a few days I am playing along with the album. Still need to work on my solos. But intros, choruses, etc are great. You will not be disappointed. For Father's day I have asked my wife to buy the Zep 1-5 set. (and from) - has the best price anywhere for 5 book set. Can't wait.

Overall a good book of transcriptions. There are a few that did not prove to be as accurate as I would have expected, but it was of no consequence really and is otherwise a great source. Alfred is still the best publisher of these works I believe and I will continue to buy from them.

Got this as well as the boxed transcriptions of first five albums, and I can't tell you how frequently I just marvel at the sheer amount of work that must have gone into these. To be sure, it's the way I feel about any well-done transcription, but I truly can't get my head around how it's even possible to cast into print form some of those awesome, insanely wooly Page riffs, and this they've done. Great job!

The only thing better would be Mr Page himself on an instructional video going over these tabs. They are dead on note for note. I got them mostly for some of the solos I couldn't figure out on my own and couldn't be happier.

Led Zeppelin one of the best. Just a note: These books are not for beginner guitarist. I'm not saying you can't learn from them, but the intended audience is NOT the absolute beginner.

Been checking the tablature against the recordings and so far the transcriber's got it right.

Product arrived as described. Great condition
