If you are looking for a book with various themes of John Williams, look no further. This book contains many of his great hits from, like the book says, 1969-1999. It includes the themes from Born of the Fourth of July, Jurassic Park, Star Wars, Jaws, JFK, Schindler's List, E.T., Close Encounters, and Superman. It also includes Duel of the Fates, The Imperial March, Luke and Leia (for all you Star Wars fans), Cadillac Of The Skies, Hymn to the Fallen, Seven Years In Tibet, Scherzo For Motorcycle and Orchestra, and many more. If you are a fan of John Williams and play the piano, this book is for you! P.S. Also look for the 2-CD set of the same name which includes all of the same songs.

this book has a great assortment from John Williams--some of the arrangements are challenging, but most of them are moderately difficulty--many hours of enjoyment.

Great book for any John Williams enthusiasts. Sheet music is close to original works and done very nicely. Somewhere in my memory is awesome as well as the Indiana Jones theme and Superman, highly recommended!

I like music to be as close to the original as possible. I found this piano transcription did a decent job overall. I purchased this to help me study some of Williams' orchestration (chord structure) without having to figure out all the chords by ear. It's a very good 'skeleton' for these purposes. For pianists who love John Williams, I don't know of any other books that will give you a collection like this.

This book has all of Williams's best. The songs sound really good on the piano and are easily recognizable. I recommend it to any John Williams fan.

I bought this for my brother who started taking piano lessons a while back, and it's got a great selection of some of the most beautiful music I've ever heard (I love John Williams). Good if you love Jurassic Park, etc. & many other timeless musical scores!
